

BEFORE THE PUBLIC UTILITIES COMMISSION OF THE STATE OF CALIFORNIA

Order Instituting Rulemaking to Examine the Commission's Future Energy Efficiency Policies,
Administration, and Programs.

Rulemaking 06-04-010

ASSIGNED COMMISSIONER'S RULING EXTENDING TIMELINE FOR DEVELOPMENT OF ANNUAL REPORTING REQUIREMENTS

On February 21, 2006, Administrative Law Judge (ALJ) Meg Gottstein issued a ruling adopting the monthly and quarterly reporting requirements on the utilities' 2006-2008 energy efficiency programs and established procedural next steps with respect to the development of annual reporting requirements. The said ruling directed Energy Division to develop an annual reporting format that preserves as much of the Reporting Requirements Manual (and technical appendix) format as possible for presenting the annual information that will be accumulated through the monthly and quarterly reporting requirements; and also includes information on cumulative annual and lifecycle reductions of CO<sub>2</sub>, NO<sub>x</sub> and SO<sub>2</sub> and bill-payer impact reporting as required by Rule X.3 and as directed by D.05-09-043. Energy Division was instructed to post its draft proposal for annual reporting requirements by September 15, 2006 for comment by interested parties, and notice the service list in this rulemaking, or its successor proceeding, of the availability of the proposal and schedule for comment. I reiterated the above directives to the Energy Division in my May 24, 2006 scoping memo, which further indicated that opening comments on the draft proposal are due 10 workdays after the notice to the service list and reply comments are due five workdays thereafter.

By e-mails dated September 16 and 18, 2006, Energy Division staff requested a one-month extension of time to develop its draft proposal for the annual reporting requirements and to post the draft by October 16, 2006, in order to allow for more time to work out with the utilities and other interested parties any existing concerns on the latest Reporting Requirements Manual (RRM3) filed earlier this year and incorporate the other required information as set forth in the Policy Rule X.3. I hereby approve Energy Division's request and correspondingly extend the due dates for filing opening and reply comments to October 26 and October 31, 2006, respectively. ALJ Gottstein will issue a subsequent ruling addressing comments and adopting the format and content of the annual reports.

IT IS RULED that:

1. The timeline for Energy Division's draft proposal for annual reporting requirements and subsequent opening and reply comments is revised as noted above.
2. This ruling shall be served on the service list in this proceeding and in Application 05-06-004 et al.

Dated September 22, 2006, at San Francisco, California.
